The Community Foundation is a member of many professional organizations including:

Alliance of Community Foundations - The Alliance of Community Foundations teaches Illinois residents about the advantages of giving to Community Foundations. The Alliance educates residents about the maximum tax benefits, flexibility, and accountability that Community Foundations provide, as well as their ability to understand local needs and their knowledge about established grant making procedures and criteria. By providing a listing of all Illinois Community Foundations, the Alliance strives to connect residents with the Foundation nearest them. - www.communityfoundationsofillinois.org

Association of Fundraising Professionals - The Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) represents 25,000 members in 163 chapters throughout the United States, Canada and Mexico, working to advance philanthropy through advocacy, research, education, and certification programs. The Community Foundation has representation on the local chapter. - <http://www.nsfre.org/>

Council on Foundations - The Council on Foundations (COF) represents 2,000 granting making foundations and giving programs around the world. The Council provides member foundations with leadership, expertise, and legal services as well as networking and professional opportunities. The National Council on Foundations has recognized the Community Foundation for meeting National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations. Of the 700 community foundations nationwide, more than 480 have pledged to comply with the National Standards, which were created in 2000. - www.cof.org

Leave a Legacy - Everyday Iowans benefit from the gifts that nonprofit charitable organizations give to our communities. In order for those organizations to thrive, groups of individuals, professionals, and charitable nonprofit organizations have banded together to provide a statewide network — LEAVE A LEGACY™ Iowa. The purpose is a simple one—to encourage people to make gifts from their estate to charitable nonprofit organizations. -
